

STAR GUIDE TO THE EROTIC ZONE

Judy Hall

For the hottest passion, learn where your partner's secret erotic zone lies. All you need to know to find this tempestuous spot is the star sign under which he or she was born.

Each sign of the zodiac is connected to a specific part of the body. Know your zodiac signs and you will know how to turn a partner on, instantly. Tell your partner where your erotic zone is and you too can enjoy celestial sex.

Aries

Run your fingers through your Aries lover's hair or across the back of the neck for a fast turn on. Aries is linked to the head and for Aries the nape of the neck, forehead and ears are especially erotic. Caressing these areas quickly arouses carnal desire. Aries is also connected, through the Lord of Lust (the planet Mars), with the sexual organs and the nipples. These are passionate Aries hottest spots.

Taurus

The mouth, throat and neck are torrid Taurus' most erotic zones. Deep kissing is a great turn-on but so too is being fed succulent morsels or fine wines. Stroking the throat soon excites your Taurus lover, as do love bites on the neck and kisses that move slowly downwards. For this sensual sign, the whole body is an erotic zone so stroking all over with perfumed oil brings paroxysms of delight.

Gemini

The mind is inventive Gemini's most powerful erotic zone. Talking and fantasising about sex is what turns this sign on – Gemini invented text sex and just adores a smoochy internet chat room. When you do get together, light finger-brushing or gentle tonguing of ears or lips - whilst talking dirty of course. Your Gemini lover can find pleasure in having the hands gently caressed, particularly the fingers and palms, but not for too long. All Geminis talk with their hands!

Cancer

The breasts and the stomach are highly sensitive areas for your Cancer lover. But this romantic sign likes a circuitous approach, so have a wonderful meal, then share tender kisses before making your move. Cancer men find having their chest brushed with featherlight fingertips highly erotic. Cancer women like to have the whole breast cradled and caressed - gently - before moving down to the stomach. Tweak Cancer nipples at your peril! You may just set the world alight.

Leo

Adulation is a great turn-on for your Leo lover. You can flatter a Leo into bed. People born under this sign adore being stroked at the base of the spine. But the whole back is an erotic zone for the sexy lion. Clawing in a cat-like fashion, and raking fingernails down the spine, makes this regal pussycat purr. Don't be too gentle, Leos enjoy a little pain with their pleasure. A backscrub with a bristle brush, or a loofah, can turn bathtime into erotic an playtime.

Virgo

Virgo is a mind-orientated sign so sex talk and sharing fantasies are a great arouser despite this sign's outward reticence. Simply thinking about sex gets your Virgo lover going. The right smell can do it too – and many Virgo's enjoy sex in the shower. Traditionally, Virgo is connected with the nervous system. Lightly run your fingertips over your lover's skin to stimulate the nerve endings into exquisite pleasure. Or try some, slow, finger sucking. For some Virgos, having the feet stroked can be a powerful turn-on too.

Libra

The Lady of Love herself, voluptuous Venus, is the planet associated with this pleasure-loving sign. Soft lights, perfumes and romance put your Libra lover in the mood for love. In public, Libra rather likes the secret turn-on of a hand around the waist straying downwards. In private, it is the buttocks that arouse passion. Kneading, fondling and pinching this sensitive area drives this laid-back sign wild.

Scorpio

Sexy Scorpio is reputed to be the zodiac's most passionate sign. It is no wonder then that Scorpio is traditionally associated with the sexual organs. But you should know that, even when strongly aroused, above the waist your enigmatic Scorpio lover gives little away. But down below it is a different story, Scorpio invented the G spot!

Sagittarius

For your Sagittarius lover the hips and thighs are highly erotic and the sign has traditionally been associated with horse riding, a great turn on for some Sag's. People born under this fiery sign often find it difficult to be connected to their body. But a massage that starts on the hips, goes down the outer thighs and then moves to back up the inner thighs soon sets this impetuous sign alight.

Capricorn

Cautious Capricorn likes to remain firmly in control. This slow-to-rouse sign does not believe in erotic zones. Until it comes to the knees that is! Stroking the back of the knees can be an unexpectedly orgasmic experience for your Capricorn lover. Stroking all over is much appreciated too. Take your time, build up trust, use a firm but gentle touch and an unyielding Capricorn will become putty in your hands.

Aquarius

Wacky Aquarius likes things to be a little different. The sign hates set routines, so go for the unexpected. Traditionally, Aquarius is connected to the calves and ankles. Light caresses on these areas can be highly erotic, but watch the signals carefully. Something stronger may be called for. When aroused, your Aquarius lover positively crackles with static electricity. Stand by for shocks!

Pisces

Whispering sweet nothings can arouse imaginative Pisces to a sexual frenzy. This is the sign that loves to be in love – and simply adores acting out other people's fantasies. Traditionally, the feet are the erotic zone for romantic Pisces. They like to have the feet stroked, massaged or simply held. Toe sucking drives a Pisces lover wild. Many Pisces have a shoe fetish. Looking, touching and even sniffing is powerfully erotic.

For further details of how astrology can help you to understand your relationships see Sun Signs for Lovers, Hamlyn and Karmic Connections: the birthchart, karma and relationship, Wessex Astrologer.